

About Us

Since 1991, Urban Housing Solutions has provided affordable homes in supportive communities to serve Nashville's homeless, low income, and workforce populations. In partnership with government agencies and nonprofits, we go beyond housing to offer a continuum of care that includes transportation access, medical and mental health support, substance abuse recovery, and civic services.

UHS Staff Team + Residents

26th & Clarksville, Phase III

Who We Serve

We believe that having a place to call home changes everything. At UHS, we help

- People experiencing homelessness or housing instability
- Nashville's workforce
- People on fixed incomes (SSI/SSDI) and Section 8 Voucher holders
- Young professionals & artists
- People who are Deaf & Hard-of-Hearing
- Adults with Intellectual & Developmental Disabilities
- Families with children
- People living with HIV & AIDS
- People in substance use recovery

CREATING SUPPORTIVE COMMUNITIES

In cooperation with our partner network, UHS goes beyond housing to connect residents with transportation services, medical care, vocational support, and life-skills training. Supportive services include, but are not limited to:

- Service coordination
- Transportation assistance
- Health fairs
- Wrap-around services including recovery, employment assistance, mental health care, etc.
